

Key Take-Aways

State infrastructure planning funds have been impactful and should be prioritized in upcoming legislative sessions

Cities will require, and should be planning for, financial match to implement construction grants

EDOs can support by developing a strategy of site and infrastructure prioritization with stepped plan for implementation

Discuss with your utility providers if there are limitations on proactive site investments and what can be done to support their planning and investments